Summary

I'm Sujal Lohar, a Computer Science undergraduate at Nirma University (ITNU'27) with a minor in Cyber Security. I enjoy working at the intersection of technology, automation, and real-world problem-solving.

I've gained hands-on experience through roles such as Automation Engineer at T.I.M.E. Pvt. Ltd. and Web Developer at The Akshaya Patra Foundation, where I built practical, data-driven solutions with social impact. Alongside industry exposure, I've been actively involved in global leadership and collaboration, serving as an HPAIR 2025 Delegate and previously as Junior Manager, OGTA at AIESEC.

I'm also research-inclined, with a strong interest in AI/ML, DevOps, and scalable systems, and I enjoy learning by building and collaborating with people from diverse backgrounds.

Currently exploring opportunities in tech, research, and global programs that create meaningful impact.
